

Discussion Questions

1. Name one movie where one of the significant characters is a scientist:

2. In this movie, what did the scientist do?

3. Do you think the scientist fit one of the four archetypes we have been discussing?

4. Do you know anyone who is actually a scientist? If so, does this person fit one of the archetypes we've been discussing?

5. How are real scientists alike/different from movie scientist?

6. Do you think the way movies portray scientists is helpful or harmful to the public's interest and understanding of science?